

Wall of Silence: The Untold Story of the Medical Mistakes That Kill and Injure Millions of Americans.

December 19, 2018

Gibson R, Singh JP. Washington DC, LifeLine Press; 2003.

<https://psnet.ahrq.gov/issue/wall-silence-untold-story-medical-mistakes-kill-and-injure-millions-americans>

Written by a program officer at the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation and a health economist, this book chronicles real stories of victims of medical mistakes. Written in a popular style and in an advocate's tone, experts may find the analyses of individual errors and discussion of policy implications a bit superficial; the book's major contribution is putting a human face on medical errors.