

Medication error in the care of HIV/AIDS patients: electronic surveillance, confirmation, and adverse events.

July 14, 2009

DeLorenze GN, Follansbee SF, Nguyen DP, et al. Medication error in the care of HIV/AIDS patients: electronic surveillance, confirmation, and adverse events. Med Care. 2005;43(9 Suppl):III63-III68.

<https://psnet.ahrq.gov/issue/medication-error-care-hivaids-patients-electronic-surveillance-confirmation-and-adverse>

---

This AHRQ-funded retrospective study of 5473 patient encounters found that reviewing electronic pharmacy records could help identify preventable medication errors (particularly the use of contraindicated medications) in HIV-infected outpatients.