

ISMP's List of High-Alert Medications in Acute Care Settings.

January 14, 2024

Horsham, PA; Institute for Safe Medication Practices: 2024.

<https://psnet.ahrq.gov/issue/ismps-list-high-alert-medications-acute-care-settings>

This fact sheet lists medications with a high risk of causing significant harm to patients when incorrectly administered. The 2024 publication reflects insights gathered through a survey of current medication use in acute care facilities. The update includes the addition of tranexamic acid injections as a high alert medication based on survey results, error reports and expert review.