

Effects of an integrated clinical information system on medication safety in a multi-hospital setting.

December 19, 2011

Mahoney CD, Berard-Collins CM, Coleman R, et al. Effects of an integrated clinical information system on medication safety in a multi-hospital setting. Am J Health Syst Pharm. 2007;64(18):1969-77.

<https://psnet.ahrq.gov/issue/effects-integrated-clinical-information-system-medication-safety-multi-hospital-setting>

This study found that integration of clinical information system technology decreased selected medication errors and improved drug monitoring through the use of clinical decision support alerts.