

Systematically improving physician assignment during in-hospital transitions of care by enhancing a preexisting hospital electronic health record.

July 1, 2009

Zsenits B, Polashenski WA, Sterns RH, et al. Systematically improving physician assignment during in-hospital transitions of care by enhancing a preexisting hospital electronic health record. J Hosp Med. 2009;4(5):308-12. doi:10.1002/jhm.401.

<https://psnet.ahrq.gov/issue/systematically-improving-physician-assignment-during-hospital-transitions-care-enhancing>

An electronic system was developed in order to ensure correct assignment of hospitalist physicians to patients at admission and at the time of care transitions (e.g., discharge from the intensive care unit).