

Safety Considerations for Container Labels and Carton Labeling Design to Minimize Medication Errors: Guidance for Industry.

May 25, 2022

Rockville, MD: US Department of Health and Human Services, Food and Drug Administration, Center for Drug Evaluation and Research; May 18, 2022.

<https://psnet.ahrq.gov/issue/safety-considerations-container-labels-and-carton-labeling-design-minimize-medication-errors>

This guidance outlines design elements that reduce errors associated with medication labels.

Improvements suggested include tall-man lettering use, look-alike / sound alike avoidance and abbreviation minimization.