

An initiative to improve the management of clinically significant test results in a large health care network.

December 5, 2013

Roy CL, Rothschild JM, Dighe AS, et al. An initiative to improve the management of clinically significant test results in a large health care network. Jt Comm J Qual Patient Saf. 2013;39(11):517-527.

<https://psnet.ahrq.gov/issue/initiative-improve-management-clinically-significant-test-results-large-health-care-network>

Appropriate follow-up of abnormal test results remains a difficult issue. This local task force report recommends standardization of notification policies, clear identification of the care team, enhanced electronic result tracking, and quality reporting and metrics.