

A retrospective review of crisis events in diagnostic radiology: an analysis of frequency, demographics, etiologies, and outcomes.

June 18, 2014

Tindel MS, Darby JM, Simmons RL. A retrospective review of crisis events in diagnostic radiology: an analysis of frequency, demographics, etiologies, and outcomes. J Patient Saf. 2014;10(2):111-6.

doi:10.1097/PTS.000000000000113.

<https://psnet.ahrq.gov/issue/retrospective-review-crisis-events-diagnostic-radiology-analysis-frequency-demographics>

This study reviewed medical emergency response team activations in a radiology department. Radiology accidents accounted for 10% of events. The majority of clinical deteriorations occurred within 48 hours of admission, often while the patient was undergoing imaging to help diagnose an unknown underlying illness.