

Pharmacist outpatient prescription review in the emergency department: a pediatric tertiary hospital experience.

September 26, 2018

Shah D, Manzi S. Pharmacist Outpatient Prescription Review in the Emergency Department: A Pediatric Tertiary Hospital Experience. Pediatr Emerg Care. 2018;34(7):497-500.

doi:10.1097/PEC.0000000000000920.

<https://psnet.ahrq.gov/issue/pharmacist-outpatient-prescription-review-emergency-department-pediatric-tertiary-hospital>

Clinical pharmacist supervision improves medication safety in many health care settings. In this study, pharmacists in a pediatric emergency department (ED) reviewed all discharge prescriptions the day after patients left the ED and contacted prescribers to address safety hazards. Over a 1-year period, pharmacists intervened rarely (0.25% of prescriptions), averted 10 incidents of moderate or major harm, and worked 45 additional minutes per day.