

Center for Health Care Human Factors.

October 11, 2017

Armstrong Institute for Patient Safety and Quality.

<https://psnet.ahrq.gov/issue/center-health-care-human-factors>

Human factors engineering has provided unique insights into designing solutions to address human error and system weaknesses that facilitate mistakes. Established within the Armstrong Institute for Patient Safety and Quality, this center provides training, supports research, and raises awareness of how designing around human factors can help improve health care safety.