

National Steering Committee for Patient Safety.

June 28, 2018

Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality and the Institute for Healthcare Improvement.

<https://psnet.ahrq.gov/issue/national-steering-committee-patient-safety>

Preventable patient harm is a global public health concern. This announcement highlights a new partnership initiative co-led by the Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality and the Institute for Healthcare Improvement. The committee was formed in response to a call to coordinate a national plan and set of priorities for patient safety improvement efforts across public health and medical care communities.