

Implementation, evaluation, and recommendations for extension of AHRQ Common Formats to capture patient- and carepartner-generated safety data.

November 16, 2018

Collins S, Couture B, Dykes PC, et al. Implementation, evaluation, and recommendations for extension of AHRQ Common Formats to capture patient- and carepartner-generated safety data. JAMIA Open. 2018;1(1):20-25. doi:10.1093/jamiaopen/ooy004.

<https://psnet.ahrq.gov/issue/implementation-evaluation-and-recommendations-extension-ahrq-common-formats-capture-patient>

---

When patients and caregivers report adverse events, they may identify unique issues that other reporting systems do not capture. The authors propose adjustments to AHRQ's Common Formats for safety event reporting that allow patients and caregivers to more effectively report adverse events. An Annual Perspective emphasized the value of patient adverse event reporting in larger efforts to engage patients in their safety.