

Students have a key role in a culture of safety: analysis of student-associated medication incidents.

August 8, 2018

ISMP Medication Safety Alert! Acute care edition. July 26, 2018;23:1-4.

<https://psnet.ahrq.gov/issue/students-have-key-role-culture-safety-analysis-student-associated-medication-incidents>

Previous studies have discussed concerns associated with new clinician involvement in care delivery. This data analysis highlights how organizational culture affects student-related errors and summarizes the positive contribution students bring to medication safety, including new perspectives, recently acquired evidence, and a willingness to ask questions.