

‘Last responders’ seek to expand postmortem COVID testing In unexplained deaths.

June 3, 2020

Andrews M. Kaiser News Network. May 19, 2020.

<https://psnet.ahrq.gov/issue/last-responders-seek-expand-postmortem-covid-testing-unexplained-deaths>

---

Post-mortem examination is an important tool for determining if misdiagnosis occurs. The authors discuss the value of assessing cause of death for patients thought to have died from COVID-19 to understand disease spread and true impact.