

CMS proposal to suppress hospital safety data angers advocates — agency says COVID disruptions, staff shortages hamper ability to fairly score poor performers.

June 1, 2022

Clark C. MedPage Today. May 20, 2022.

<https://psnet.ahrq.gov/issue/cms-proposal-suppress-hospital-safety-data-angers-advocates-agency-says-covid-disruptions>

Public reporting of safety measures is considered a hallmark of health care transparency. This article discusses a proposed change to reporting requirements in the Hospital-Acquired Condition Reduction Program \(HACRP\). The change would limit the sharing of patient safety indicator data that informs Care Compare and hospital Medicare reimbursements.