

ISMP survey on tall man (mixed case) lettering to reduce drug name confusion.

November 16, 2022

Institute for Safe Medication Practices.

<https://psnet.ahrq.gov/issue/ismp-survey-tall-man-mixed-case-lettering-reduce-drug-name-confusion>

Mixed case letters are one suggested strategy to reduce look-alike medication name errors. This survey announcement calls for insight from the field to update an existing resource of problematic drug name pairs and examine the effectiveness of mixed case letter use to minimize confusion. The comment submission period is now closed.