

DOD Should Improve Its Process for Clinical Adverse Actions against Providers.

April 24, 2024

Washington, DC: United States Government Accounting Office; April 11, 2024. Publication GAO-24-106107.

<https://psnet.ahrq.gov/issue/dod-should-improve-its-process-clinical-adverse-actions-against-providers>

Health care organizations are expected to examine known practice concerns to determine what provider-focused actions need to be undertaken. This report summarizes findings from 55 case reports at military care facilities to identify investigation process weaknesses and submit recommendations for improvement. They found the timeliness of problem reporting and facility-centric actions to resolve identified issues were substandard.