

Artificial intelligence in the provision of health care: an American College of Physicians policy position paper.

June 12, 2024

Daneshvar N, Pandita D, Erickson S, et al. Artificial Intelligence in the Provision of Health Care: An American College of Physicians Policy Position Paper. Ann Intern Med. 2024;177(7):964-967.

doi:10.7326/m24-0146.

<https://psnet.ahrq.gov/issue/artificial-intelligence-provision-health-care-american-college-physicians-policy-position>

The need to establish standards as artificial intelligence (AI) and machine learning are being incorporated into clinical care is paramount. This policy statement examines the use of these technologies by internists. Recommendations submitted by the American College of Physicians address transparency, decision making, privacy, equity, ethics, the patient-physician relationship, and well-being concerns. The policy concludes with a call for continued research to support the effective development and safe use of AI.